

Dynamic Making Guides

Claire Williamson - 2464406W

December 15, 2022

1 Status report

1.1 Proposal

1.1.1 Motivation

[Clearly motivate the purpose of your project; why someone would care about what you are doing] Benefits of making/makerspaces: culture of inclusivity etc. How it could benefit disabled people. How it currently isn't inclusive of disabled people. Difficulty surrounding DIY tutorials ?

1.1.2 Aims

[Clearly state what the project is intended to do. This should be something which is measurable; it should be possible to tell if you succeeded] Create a website containing "making" project tutorials that are dynamically adapted to fit the users skills and abilities.

1.2 Progress

[Briefly state your progress so far, as a bulleted list]

- literature review on: ???
- identify potential local organisations to contact
- created basic website
- hosted website online
- investigated ethics process

1.3 Problems and risks

1.3.1 Problems

[What problems have you had so far, that have held up the project?]

- issue with ethics approval
- css/basic website took longer than expected
- it takes me 6 years to do a lit review

1.3.2 Risks

[What problems do you foresee in the future and how will you mitigate them?]

- not getting ethical approval. Mitigation: talk to gatekeepers instead.

1.4 Plan

[Time plan, in roughly weekly to monthly blocks, up until submission week]

- Week 1: Contact organisations

things to complete: - making it dynamic - making user profiles - making syllabus's - actually doing irl projects to document them - getting feedback from organisations

1.5 Ethics and data

Specify what ethical approval you need to do your evaluation and how you are approaching it. This is mandatory. Specify what data you expect to collect in your evaluation. Explain how this data will help you evaluate your project.

Options for ethics:

- This project does not involve human subjects or data. No approval required.
- I have verified that the ethics checklist will apply to any evaluation I need to do. I will sign and complete the checklist.
- I have sought ethical guidance from the School's ethics convener and I will:
- Proceed under specific instructions from the Ethics convener (e.g. modified checklist).
- Apply for College Ethics Board approval.
- Other procedure (give details)